

The Google Privacy Experiment

Copy and paste this document into a Google Doc and save it in your Google Doc account.

- A. Using only Google, search the name Albert T. Beck (he is living). See how much of the following information you can find about this person:
 1. Address
 2. Work phone number
 3. Home phone number
 4. Marital status
 5. Income
 6. Estimated age
 7. Any other interesting information about this person.
 8. Did you find any information about this person that would help you estimate his income, age, or marital status?
 9. Do you think this person has taken care to limit the information about him online? Why?

- B. Using only Google, see how much information you can find out about yourself.