

To recognize National School Bus Safety Week, Humble ISD Transportation employees delivered School Bus Safety Activity Books to all elementary schools in the district. National School Bus Safety Week was Oct. 21-25. Pictured above at River Pines Elementary from left to right are Bus Driver Daniel Laughlin, River Pines Assistant Principal Ana Griffiths, River Pines Principal Sharon Lee, Transportation Payroll Specialist Traci Herrod, and Transportation Trainer Sue McGrath.

National School Bus Safety Week

Kingwood High School Student Council members prepared goodie bags that were presented to the afternoon bus drivers for National School Bus Safety Week. Monday, the drivers were greeted with cold bottles of water and cookies. Wednesday they were met with water and bags of candy, and Thursday they were met with water bottles and chips and snacks.

Above, Transportation Supervisors Cindy Black (left) and Sandy Griggs (right) admire the Atascosita Springs Elementary marquee that shares the school's appreciation for their bus drivers.

Pictured above right, KHS StuCo members Jane Walton (left) and Sutton Johnson (right) show off the water and cookie bags after delivering them to the afternoon run on Monday.

Pictured at right, Megan Berezney prepares to take the snack cart out on Thursday.

