Who is this guy?

FEDERALIST
The Federalist did want to ratify the constitution. They thought there was a need for a stronger central government.
“Government implies the power of making laws. It is essential to the idea of a law, that it be attended with... a penalty or punishment for disobedience. If there be no penalty... the resolutions or commands which pretend to be laws will, in fact, amount to nothing more than advice.”—
Alexander Hamilton

ANTI-FEDERALIST
The Anti-Federalists did not want to ratify the Constitution they mainly argued on these things.
They felt it gave too much power to the national government at the expense of the state governments.
There was no Bill of rights and they felt that we needed one.
The national government could maintain an army in peacetime.
They thought the executive branch held too much power and become a monarchy government.
