

COLLEGE INFORMATION ON THE WEB

The Princeton Review (<http://www.review.com>) provides a database of the best undergraduate, graduate, medical law and business schools plus hotlinks.

College View Web Edition (<http://www.collegeview.com>) in depth resource about college admissions, financial aid and careers.

Campus Tours.com (<http://www.campustours.com>) virtual tours of various campuses.

The College Board (www.collegeboard.com) the College Board homepage, including an online financial aid calculator, information on scholarships, and the SAT.

National Application Center (www.nationalapplicationcenter.com) This site can help you sort out differences among schools in several state university systems.

Go College.com (www.gocollege.com) Information regarding college preparation and admission plus college and scholarship search engines.

Tools provided to help plan an essay strategy, create a resume of achievements, and brainstorm topics (www.myessay.com).

YOUiversity (www.youiversitytv.com) offers online tours of over 400 universities nationwide and gives stats on enrollment and tuition.

College Week Live (www.collegeweeklive.com) offers free online college fairs. Chat with admissions experts and current students.