

If you are working in Office Mode, and you are having trouble getting back to the regular Mobi toolbar, Remember to click the Lesson Mode button!

The screenshot shows Microsoft Word in Office Mode. The main document is a grid titled "Getting to Know Your Class" with handwritten answers in purple ink. The grid contains the following questions and answers:

Who likes to eat pizza? Andy	Who wears glasses? John	Who has blonde hair? Shanna	Who has a pet fish?
Who hates chocolate? Gracie	Who has been to the mountains? Kim	Who has been in a boat? Kim	Who likes spaghetti? Allee
What is your teacher's favorite color? plum	Whose favorite color is purple? Merideth	Who hates pickles? Ryan	Who likes to read? Andy
What is your teacher's hobby? sewing	Who has a sister? Gary	Who has a brother? John	Who is an only child? Abbey
Who has freckles? Merideth	Who likes puzzles? Steve	What is your teacher's favorite food? Mexican Food	Who is good at Spelling? Cathy
Who is good at Math? Ryan	Who has curly hair? Allee	Who lives in a 2 story house? Suzie	Does your teacher have a pet? What?

On the right side, a floating toolbar is shown. Two buttons are circled in red and labeled with arrows:

- Lesson Mode button: A button with a document icon and a red arrow pointing to it.
- Office Mode button: A button with a document icon and a red arrow pointing to it.

The bottom of the screen shows the Windows taskbar with various application icons and the system tray.