

Word Study Menu

Choose activities from the menu to practice your word study skills. Complete the written activities in your Word Study Notebook.

 <h2>Word Sort</h2> Try one of these: Write the sort Type the words Write three times each Rainbow sounds Trace the words with your finger and spell out loud	<h2>Technology</h2> Use apps and websites to practice reading and writing and learning about the words. E.g. Word Clouds, Inspiration, Google Apps, Spelling Notebook, Spelling City, Popplet, Merriam Webster, Hangman	 <h2>Word Hunt</h2>  Find words with the same patterns in the environment and in texts.
<h2>Brainstorming</h2>  Add new words with the same patterns to the categories.	<h2>Categories</h2> Choose other ways of sorting the words and create your own headers. E.g. syllables, parts of speech, homophones	<h2>Draw and Label</h2> Draw pictures to show the words and label them. Illustrate your words.
<h2>Games</h2> Play a game from class: Word Sneak Charades Pictionary Hangman Taboo	 <h2>Writing</h2> Examples: Use the words in your writing.  Write silly sentences. Use in comic strips.	<h2>Dictionary Quest</h2>  Find your words in the dictionary (print or electronic). What is the definition? Do the words have multiple meanings? What are some related words?

Spelling City:

1. Go to www.spellingcity.com and click "Search". Then hit "Teachers/Parents".
2. Type in "Susan Mitchell" for teacher name. Click "Search".
3. Click on "Susan Mitchell" next to "Greentree Elementary". (There are other Susan Mitchells.)
4. Scroll down until you see our spelling list.
5. Start playing any of the free games with the current week's list.