

The 14 Days of December

'Twas 14 days before Winter Break and all through the school;
the dress code shall deviate a bit from the rule!

On December 1st- there's joy to spare, pick a seasonal shirt to wear!

On December 2nd- let's sparkle and shine, wear your bling to fit in just fine.

On December 3rd- he's making a list and checking it twice... he's going to find out who's been naughty or nice! Pick a friend and dress as twins.

On December 4th- the holidays are here for you and for me. Wear your apparel that resembles a Christmas tree!

On December 7th-it's jingle bells, jingle bells, jingle all the way! The bells you wear will ring up and down the halls of WPE today.

On December 8th- Santa Claus is coming to town! Let's make the jolly man happy by wearing our Santa hats around.

On December 9th- in honor of Rudolph and other deer, wear antlers or animal print gear.

On December 10th- wear a top hat, buttons and a sprinkle of snow. Dress like Frosty and you will be good to go!

On December 11th- let's all dress the same to stroll down our holiday lanes (halls). Wear your red and white clothes to look like candy canes!

On December 14th- our stockings are hung by the chimney with care. Wear your best holiday socks in hopes that St. Nick will come to WPE to share.

On December 15th- the best way to spread holiday cheer is by singing loudly for all to hear... Come dressed and ready for your sELFie!

On December 16th- to help the Grinch's small heart to grow 3 sizes today, wear green to honor him in your own special way.

On December 17th- for the Polar Express, PJs and slippers is how you should dress!

On December 18th-you've never looked better... especially since you will be wearing your ugly holiday sweater!

You are granted permission to wear jeans every day under one condition....

Follow the daily themes of this returning WPE tradition!
