December Super Staffers of the Month have been selected and were recognized at the regular meeting of the Humble ISD Board of Education, Tuesday, Dec. 10.

Honored at the December Board Meeting were the following Super Staffers:

Broderick Lindsey, Physical Education Teacher at Humble Elementary

Principal Stacy Trost said “Broderick is always going above and beyond with all his duties. He pays great attention to his job responsibilities and displays a wonderful spirit while completing those tasks.”

Tyler Pink, RELA/Dyslexia Teacher at Atascocita Middle School

According to Principal Karl Koehler, “She knows the academic strengths and weaknesses along with personal likes, family members, outside activities, etc. for all of her students.” He added, “She communicates information she thinks will be valuable with team members so we can all work together to better serve our students. Plus, Tyler’s positive attitude is contagious!”

Deb Tillett, Transition Facilitator for Vocational Training of Special Needs Students

Working out of the Eggers Instructional Support Center, Tillett was nominated by several different employees. “Deb truly believes in our students and that they can have jobs,” according to one nomination form. “She does an awesome job working with campuses to ensure that the students get the skills they need for their future employment opportunities.”

Humble ISD’s Super Staffer of the Month program is intended to provide recognition to employees for taking significant steps to advance excellence in education. Each campus in the district identifies one staff member each month that has exceeded expectations in the performance of their duties to improve relationships that advance learning and support student achievement. The names of all Super Staffers are entered in a monthly drawing that allows three individuals to be spotlighted as examples of the outstanding work being done for students. One name is drawn randomly from three categories and announced at the Humble ISD Board of Trustees meeting. The categories include elementary schools, secondary schools, and administration/support staff.

The Humble ISD Education Foundation sponsored the Super Staffers prize drawing for December.
