

Science Safety and Tools Vocabulary

Safety

The act of being safe and away from danger by making the right choices.

Precaution

Action taken before doing anything to prevent danger and protect yourself

- Wearing goggles
- Following directions
- Being prepared

Hazard

DANGER!!!

Anything that could hurt you or others, if not careful

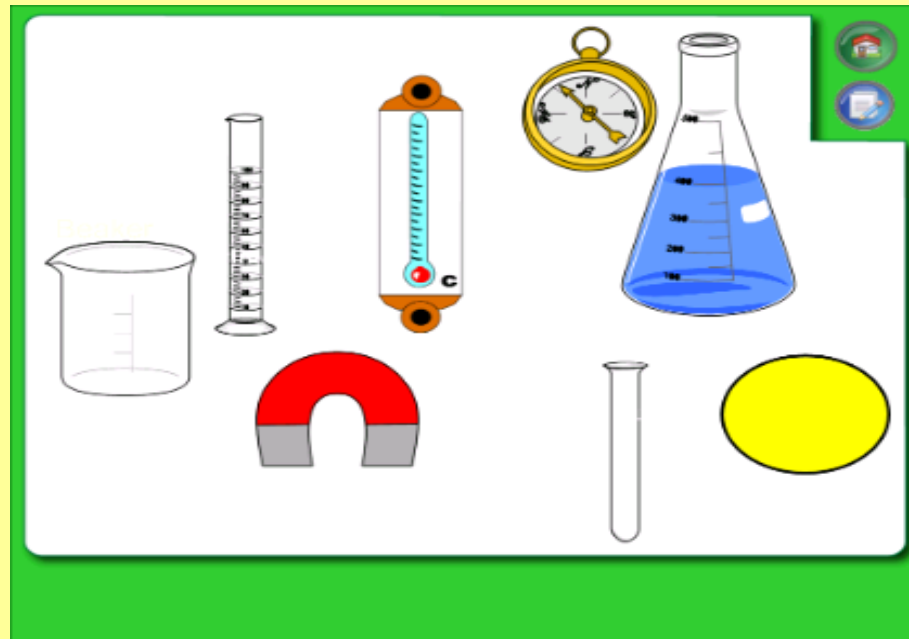

safety equipment

gear that is worn or used to prevent injury during scientific investigations.

Science Tools

Instruments/objects used for collecting data, taking measurements, and recording observations during investigations

procedures

Steps to follow to complete an experiment or any task.

A set of specific steps that must be completed to reproduce the same result under the same conditions.

