

Text Features

Text Feature	Definition table of contents	provides a list of information included in the text in the order it will appear headings	words or phrases that tell what a section of text will be about photographs	pictures taken with a camera to show objects as they appear in real life captions	small text found near a picture that provides important information about the picture diagram	a picture, usually a drawing, that has labels to identify its parts special type	making a word stand out as important glossary	an alphabetical listing of important words from the text and their meanings index	an alphabetical listing of important words from the text and page numbers where they can be found pronunciations	breaking the word down into chunks to show how it is pronounced map	used to show where places or things are located