

English III Unit 6 Vocabulary

	Part of Speech	Definition	Synonym	Antonym
1. inherent	Adjective	Something that is a permanent, inseparable element, quality, or attribute	essential, fundamental, innate	acquired, external, incidental
2. overwrought	Adjective	Extremely agitated or overwhelmed	Overwhelmed, panicked, nervous	Calm, peaceful, relaxed
3. precursor	Noun	Something that indicates an outcome or event beforehand; something that precedes something else	Antecedent, predecessor, forerunner	Sequel, descendant
4. pertinent	Adjective	Relating directly to the matter at hand; relevant	Applicable, pertaining, relevant	Inappropriate, irrelevant, unsuitable
5. slough	verb	To dispose or get rid of; to cast off; to dismiss as trivial	Shed, discard, throw away, chuck, blow off	keep

Root	Definition	Cognates
1. cert	sure	certify, certain, certificate, ascertain
2. domin	master	dominion, dominate, domineering, predominate
3. extra	outside; beyond	extraordinary, extraneous, extraterrestrial, extrovert
4. similis	like; resembling	similar, simultaneous, simile, simulator
5. miser	unhappy; wretched	miserable, commiserate, miser, misery